Dear Doctor Burleigh,

This is just a quick note to add a couple of items that may help in the researching of my family tree.

As I recall I sent you my family tree 'package' and the top items were James Johnson, his wife Margaret, and then their large family. Recently I have found the possibility of there being another daughter in James's family. This daughter would be named 'Mary' and would have been born almost certainly before 1791. If her mother was born in 1772, we must allow her some time to grow up and marry, so a date as close to 1789 as possible is best. This 'Mary' married a Burrison when she grew up. I am in contact with her descendants. Anyways, the Burrison connection with my Johnsons occurs somewhere among James's daughters, and this may be the solution.

Furthermore, I have this bit of information from the card catalogue at the Ontario Archives:

James Johnson - Ameliasburgh
m. Margaret, daughter of Henry Ridnor Sr. of Ameliasburgh.
See U.E.L. Book.

I can't recall whether I sent you this before or not. Unless you know anything about it, it is a dead-end. The James and Margaret, and location check, but I have never run into any Ridnors before—but I have never known Margaret's maiden name anyway. I followed this information up in the U.E.L. Book but the entry simply does not exist! I asked the people on duty how this card got in the catalogue since it doesn't immediately lead anywhere, and they couldn't explain it.

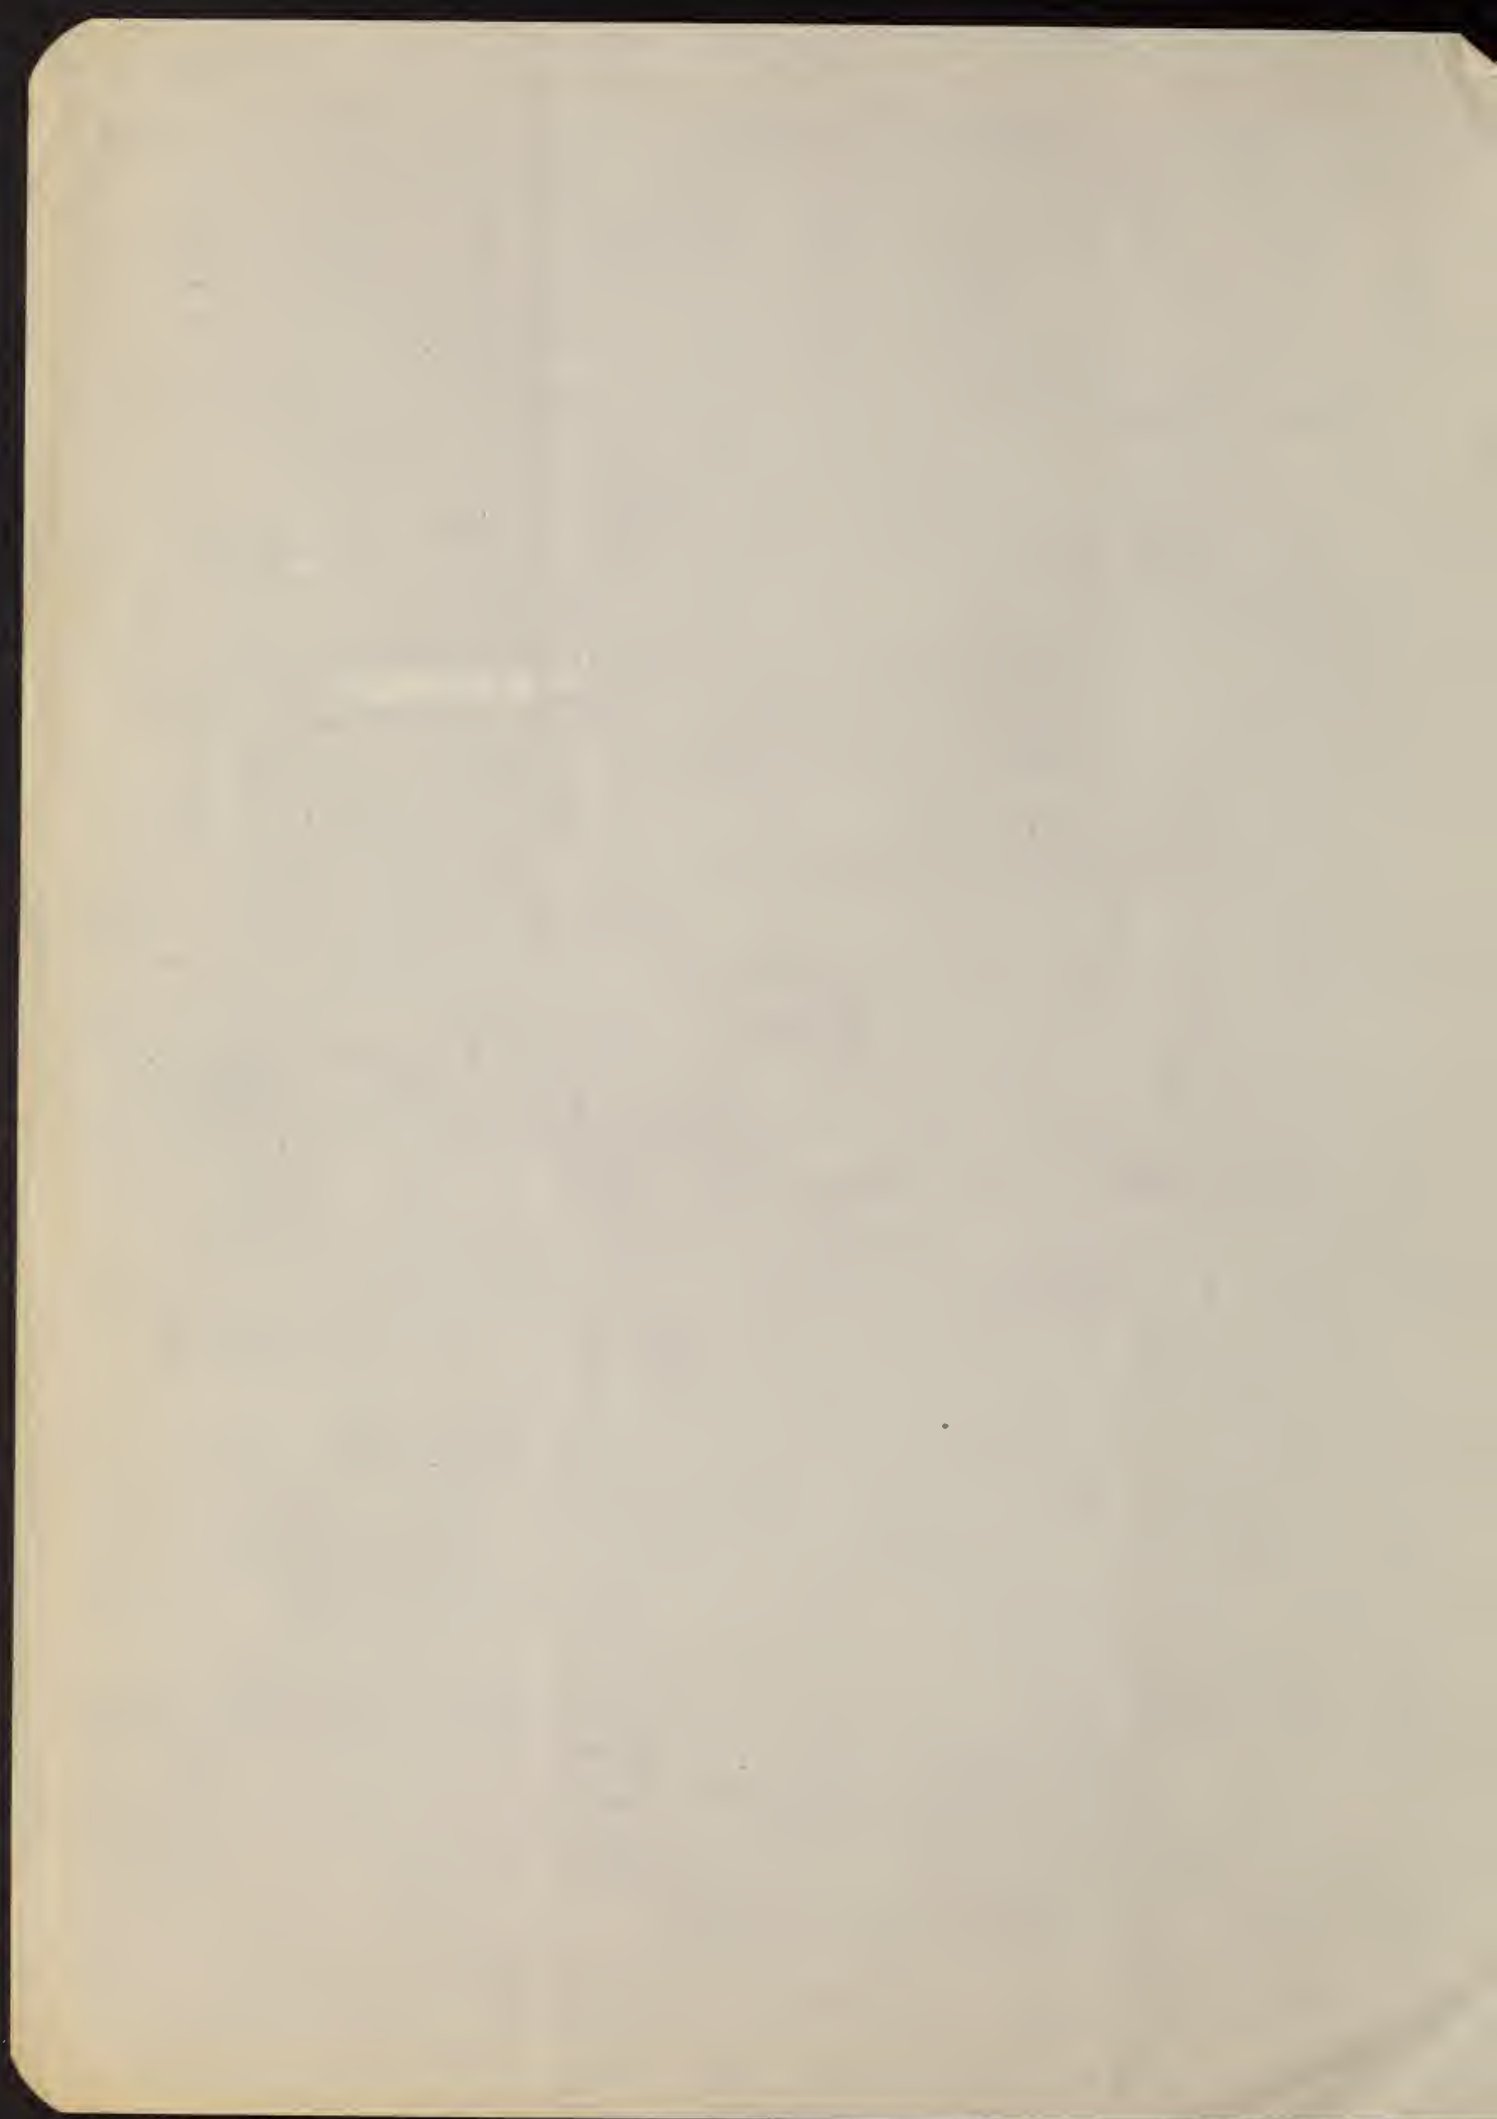

When I sent my fee last October, I neglected to ask how busy you are. Conceivably you may have quite a back-log of research to do. Will I be hearing from you soon?

Well, that covers everything for now, and I hope you and your wife are both well.

Yours truly,

Peter Johnson
